Plumbing

J. B. McGuirk the plumber, is now situated in the Opera House block and all jobs of tinning and plumbing in trust to his care will be attended to in a workmanlike manner, and you don't have to mortgage your house to pay or it.

Milk! Milk!!

Fresh, pure, clean and unadulterated milk delivered morning and evening at any part of the city. No water, no dirt; nothing but milk. One quart one month, $2.50. Ross & Swail, may 19 1886

Ice! Ice! Ice!!!

People wanting ice will leave their order at Doc Benton's Livery Stable, ice delivered to any part of the city. may 12 1886

—WANTED—A partner, either active or silent, to invest from $500 to $1,000 in a legitimate, profitable business, no competition, in Carson City. Address, MERCANTILE, Carson Postoffice. jelt2f

Siddons, the watchmaker and jeweler, has opened a shop opposite the Opera House, where he is prepared to attend to all work in his line as formerly. Watches, clocks, jewelry etc. repaired and warranted.

George McLoughlin is the sole agent in Carson for the "New Domestic" sewing machine. A machine which is now at the acknowledged head of the long line of machines offered the public Perfected in action noiseless and lasting —For the best horse harness now in the market go to Doc Benton. It is his own make, and warranted to beat all the fancy brands. jly2f

WANTED—A situation as a clerk, by a colored man who understands his business. Apply at this office. may 29 1886

ALL SORTS.

—Sweeney had two new waiters.
—The ranchers rejoice over the rain.
—The Board of Pardons are in session.
—Trout are biting at the Mexican dam.
—Young Ray Laughton is steadily improving.
—J. C. Hagerman of Reno was in the city yesterday.
—George Bryson reports advanced sales of the Key West.
—Lots of people are going to the mountains with camping outfits.
—WANTED—A girl to do general housework. Apply at this office.
—The little shower yesterday raised the Carson river two inches.
—Ross & Swail, the vegetable dealers suspended on Saturday last.

—Lost—An ice hook. The finder will please return to Benton's stable.

—Telegraphic reports show that the rain was pretty general all over the State.

—Leslie Bell is still handling a splendid stock of vegetables fresh every day.

—McClellan Matcalf sent from Washoe City for forgery was pardoned yesterday.

—Bishop Whittaker and Judge Rising passed through Carson yesterday for the Lake.

—Mr. McCrimmon announces that he is prepared to do artistic horse shoeing at 50 cts. a shoe.

—Thos. Flynn and Frank Butler's case before the Board of Pardons was continued for the term.

—A Philadelphia cooper went safely through the Whirlpool Rapids yesterday, in an iron bound cask.

—Miss Ella Edwards went below last evening to take charge of a Kindergarten school in San Francisco.

—Carson made a score of 845 against Tacoma on Sunday beating by 15 points. Against Seattle the score was 835.

—Mr. Barrett, the Tuscarora bulldozer, was in the city yesterday, being chaperoned by Charley Stoddard, the all round bulldozer.

—John Mackay is expected up this week about Wednesday and by next Saturday the status of the Senatorial fight will be better known.

—A correspondent writes the APPEAL to know if women are allowed to vote in vestry meetings. We believe that this prerogative is only allowed in the Shaker denomination.

—On Sunday night a lamp overturning in Doc Benton's house set some lace curtains and bedding afire and for a while the inmates thought the house would go. It was finally extinguished by water and a wet blanket. The damage was not over $10.

—To most children the bare suggestion of a dose of castor oil is nauseating. Why not, then, when physic is necessary for the little ones, use Ayer's Cathartic Pills? They combine every essential and valuable principle of a cathartic medicine, and being sugar coated are easily taken.

—Almost every person has some form of scrofulous poison latent in his veins. When this develops in scrofulous sores, ulcers, or eruptions, or takes the form of rheumatism, or organic diseases, the suffering that ensues is terrible beyond description. Hence the gratitude of those who discover, as thousands yearly do, that Ayer's Sarsaparilla will thoroughly eradicate this evil from the system.

—The difference between the actual value of thoroughbreds and scrubs is well illustrated by W. J. Marsh, the Mason Valley cattle breeder.

Some years ago he had a thoroughbred Durham cow. Through an oversight it became with calf by a scrub bull and the calf was sold for $35. A half sister to this calf was sired by a thoroughbred bull and when three years old sold for $500. The difference in favor of thoroughbred stock can be easily figured out.

—WANTED TO RENT—Rooms in the Northern part of the city. Inquire at this office.

—WANTED—A house to rent or purchase. Inquire at this office. jly2f

A HOT DAY.

Extraordinary Weather for Carson.

Sunday was a phenomenally hot day for Carson City. When the sun rose over the edge of the mountains in the morning it had about twelve extra degrees of heat on it, and by the time it had been up an hour the tickle grass began to wilt, and the leaves on the cotton woods acted like the pitcher of the Chloride ball club.

The hens that came out to hunt stray bugs and worms surveyed the prospect for a few moments, took their morning drink and retreated into the shady hen house.

By noon it was just blistering, and if you took hold of a brass door knob you thought you were in Sacramento sure. People who got all dressed for church changed their minds, and taking off their clothes put their feet to soak in a tub of water and fanned themselves.

The sun blazed and blazed for hours and hours, and never seemed to change its location at all.

The dogs crawled under the house along with the cats, both on good terms for the time, and the cows' tongues flapped around their fore legs as they walked.

The shingles turned up on the roofs, and when a man walked round the corner the sweat ran down into his shoes and sprinkled the sidewalk. You could bake a batch of bread in George Harle's refrigerator.

The solder on the tin roofs melted and ran down into the gutters like rain water.

Doc Benton started out with his ice wagon, and before he got to the Postoffice he found he was running a street sprinkler, and the street sprinkling cart, right along behind, was puffing steam from all the cracks in the box.

These are the few simple facts regarding the weather, culled along Main street, from the truthful population of the city, and the APPEAL gives them for what they are worth.

We just give them as they come. We had rather print a thousand lies a day than cast doubts upon any respectable citizen's version of last Sunday's hot spell.

Take Heed.

This morning the posts and pillars along Front street were adorned with a bit of red tape, showing that the "601's" were abroad in the land, and meant business. For the past few weeks the town has been infested with a lot of vags, toughs, tramps, dead beats and back street dudes, and it looks as though the town would be captured by this mob of ruffians. It is high time that a general cleaning out of this class was begun. It is reported that a brigade of forty toughs camped down by the wood shed yesterday and last night. If they are permitted to remain we expect to hear of burglaries, thefts, robberies, murders perhaps, or a conflagration may destroy the town. Our peace officers and safety committees should see that they are made to move on. A few arrests may have a salutary effect. —Truckee Republican.

Yesterday's Storm

About noon yesterday the sky became overcast by hot coppery clouds with a misty underlay of gray which by one o'clock had deepened into a black coverd proposition and a streak of rain in the direction of the Comstock.

By two o'clock the lightning was running its loose work over all quarters of the heavens, and the hot air was refreshed by a lively shower. The earth drank up the moisture like a thirsty traveler encompassing a beer schooner. Everybody got out and enjoyed the storm. At times the thunder was sharp and close enough to make people tremble in their boots. The weather wise predict another rain tonight.

A Novel Suit.

Fort Worth, Texas, has forgotten the great strike in the excitement of a novel law suit. Two men were suitors for the hand of the same girl, and one has sued out an injunction against any minister or magistrate commanding him not to marry the lady to his rival. He has stationed an officer at her gate ready to serve it if there are any symptoms of a wedding.

—The following comes from the Daily Report:
On dit that Susie Williams has returned to the bosom of her family and will astonish us no more.

How to Edit a Paper.

Probably more people think they have been endowed with ability to edit a paper than almost anything besides. The trial for one week would possibly convince them of their mistake. The following hint from the Dawson, Ga., Journal may be of use to those who think of embarking upon the sea of journalism:

"Editing a paper is a pleasant business—if you like it. If it contains much political matter people won't have it. If the type is large it don't contain much reading matter. If we publish telegraph reports people say they are nothing but lies. If we omit them we have no enterprise, or suppress them for political effect. If we have a few jokes people say we are nothing but rattleheads. If we omit jokes people say we are fossils. If we publish original matter they damn us for not giving selections. If we give selections people say we are lazy for not writing more and giving them what they have not read in some other paper. If we give a complimentary notice we are censured for being partial. If we don't all hands say we are a great hog. If we insert an article that pleases the ladies the men become jealous, and vice versa. If we remain in our office attending to our business folks say we are proud to mingle with other fellows. If we go out they say we don't attend to our business.

A Baby Fed to Bears.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, July 12.—A correspondent sends from North Jackson, this county, the following story: Early this week seven Turks, with a pack of trained bears which were kept muzzled, were coming near the village. One morning a young woman—one of the party—with her four-year-old babe was sent out to beg victuals for breakfast. Charity was cold and close, and the men, enraged at her ill success, snatched the babe from her arms and threw it to the unmuzzled bears. They devoured the infant instantly. The mother's screams brought some farmers to the camp. She stated what had occurred. The indignant farmers began to talk vengeance, when the men said that the baby was dead when it was fed to the bears. The story was not believed, as an hour before the child was seen alive. Later in the day an effort was made to find the Turks but they had fled.

Flint Glass-Blowers.

PITTSBURG, Penn., July 9.—The Tenth Annual Convention of the Flint Glass-blowers will begin at Hamilton, Ontario, Monday. Wm F Smith of this city will preside. Pittsburg is the largest district of the association, having five local unions with a membership of 5,000, or half the association. Pittsburg will be represented by eighty-five delegates. The question of joining the Knights of Labor will come up before the Convention. The Flint Glass-blowers are in favor of the combination, provided they are granted the same privilege held by Assembly, No. 300, of the Knights of Labor, otherwise the Window Glass-Worker's Association will still preserve its original organization. Western delegates will demand a "shut-down" of six weeks or two-months every Summer, regarding the present stop of four weeks too short.

Couldn't Trade.

The Pioche Record is responsible for the following:

An honest farmer was in Pioche on Friday and was on the trade. He offered to swap his eighteen year old boy, who smoked cigars, to any person for a yellow dog, and finding no takers at even up he offered $5 to boot, but even then he couldn't make a trade.

Typhoid Fever.

Charles Hartford, of New Castle, Westchester Co., N. Y., suffered with typhoid fever, and was given up to die. He was restored to health in one week by taking five Brandreth Pills every night and drinking plentifully of oatmeal gruel. A few doses of Brandreth's Pills will invariably cure any kind of fever.

—A special meeting of Custer Relief Corps is hereby called for initiation, and the consideration of applications for membership for Tuesday, July 13th, 2 o'clock P. M. at Masonic Hall

MRS. ELIZA S. LEONARD, President.
